2014 Parade Of Boats

By Todd Moen

The 2014 Parade of Boats had everything going for it. Weather was perfect with a light breeze and a great crowd sitting the entire length of the pond behind the Hughes Pavilion at the water's edge. However, there was a severe lack of boats (I counted 57), and only 31 members showed up. C'mon folks, we can do better than that, after all, this is our biggest event of the year and more participation is very important.

COMMODORE'S CORNER

By John Bertelsen

A different Parade of Boats this year. The weather, well, if you didn't believe in God before the Parade, you should now. It was an exceptional day, cloudless and sunny, perfect temperature, and enough wind for great sailing. There were, however, 50 boats less on display than previous years. About 70 this year, far short of our usual, and judging by the freshly made name tags that remained unclaimed, a significant number of no-shows. Still, it was a great show of all types of boats. The crowd started light and built to a steady flow of people. We set up folding chairs along the pond this year, and they were filled most of the afternoon.

I was trying out the "People's Choice Award" and I was watching the ballot boxes to see if anyone would bother to vote. I saw only one person voting and thought that at least we would crown a winner this year. So at 2:30 when it came time to count the votes, opening up that first ballot box was like watching the crab pots come on board on Deadliest Catch. I was pleased to see the bottom of the box covered in ballots! In all, just over one hundred ballots were cast, and 31 boats received at least one vote. The winner was a tie, and just as if we would have split the voting between kids and adults, one boat was Jim Zipf's all black (and almost a fantasy version of a) Pirate Boat, and the other Dick Walkers fantastic "Der Sea Kadet".

Coming up on the afternoon of Saturday, June 28th is a wedding reception at the Centrum Building, and from New York City we have been asked if we could put the bride and grooms names on some sails and have the boats on the water for the reception.

I have the names made up, thankfully both are short, and I will be trying them on some sails to see how they look. They are on clear film so they can be taped to sails on a temporary basis. We need at least two volunteers to be there that afternoon for the wedding reception. There will be an email on this also, so one way or the other let me know if you will take this on and I will get the names to you. It is a rare opportunity for the club to do something extra for the Park in appreciation for use of their facilities that we enjoy free of any cost all year long.

There is also the Classic & Vintage Boat show at White Bear Lake at the same time on June 28th and are requesting that our RC boats be on display for the show.

Finally, remember that summer meetings start at 8:00. See you there.

Classic & Vintage Boat Show

We have been asked to display our great RC boats at the 9th Annual White Bear Lake Classic & Vintage Boat Show in White Bear Lake on June 28, 2014, from 10:00am to 4:00pm at the White Bear Lake Shopping Center located at 4450 Lake Avenue South.

This event features all classes of boats that have been on the waters of White Bear Lake over the past century. It might be a possibility of running our boats on the water as well, right by the shopping center. Details to follow in an e-mail from John Bertelsen. What a great way to see the real vintage boats and give exposure to our club. - Todd Moen
